SEPARATE PEACE TO BE DISCUSSED AT MEETING; JEWELL IS BACK ON JOB

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—The conference of rail executives broke up shortly before 3 o'clock with no announcement of what been discussed or whether anything had been accomplished.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(By The Associated Press)—Administration leaders who have kept in especially close touch with the industrial situation declared today that settlement of the shopmen's strike on a number of railroads "was probable" as a result of conferences in Chicago.

According to these sources, several railroad executives were represented in an informal conference at Chicago today which they said was called largely through the efforts of Daniel Willard, of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(By The Associated Press)—Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, met a few western rail executives in conference in the Chicago club this afternoon, presumably to discuss proposals for a basis of settlement of the shopmen's strike on certain roads by individual agreements. No announcement was made that a conference had been arranged, nor what it was expected to accomplish and all parties maintained silence.

So far as learned, only a few of the western roads had planned to send representatives. H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, was known to be at the meeting. Both he and Mr. Willard earlier had refused to discuss the conference and its subject matter, although Mr. Byram had said his company still would discuss separate agreements if a satisfactory settlement basis could be found.

While Mr. Willard and his conferees were at the club, B. M. Jewell and other shop craft leaders were at the headquarters of the railway employees department on the North Side. Mr. Jewell, who returned from the East today, refused to make any statement. He called up news association officials and said, "We have no statement to make at this time."

The plan Daniel Willard of the B. and O. Railway is said to have proposed for individual agreements for settlement of the shopmen's strike, so far as outlined does not mention seniority rights, the Chicago Daily News says today. According to this published story the seniority question would be compromised, although full seniority would not be restored.

H. M. Jewell, head of the federated shop crafts, Wm. H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists and Martin F. Ryan, president of the International Brotherhood of Railway Carmen of America, arrived in Chicago this morning from the east and were served with the notice of the temporary injunction granted the government last Friday.

The shop craft leaders came to the city for preliminary conferences in connection with the meeting of the union policy committee of ninety members on Monday. The policy committee, it has been reported, was expected to decide whether separate agreements with the railroads would be approved. Previously union leaders have rejected individual agreements.

Mr. Jewell and the other labor leaders arriving today were met at the

Committee May Meet In Peace

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Assurances have been given by Attorney General Daugherty, according to information today from administration leaders that the meeting next Monday at Chicago of the striking shopmen's committee would not be interfered with by the government under the federal court's restraining order.

To Be Cooler Soon

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Ohioans will have to wait at least another day before present mid-July temperatures are substituted by those characteristic of September, the weather bureau announced today. The hot wave which for the sixth consecutive day carried temperature above the ninety mark, today was expected to abate somewhat tomorrow, with the advent of cloudy weather and by Sunday cooler weather should prevail.

The sweltering populace might find consolation, it was said, in the fact that in 1897, weather bureau records showed the thermometer mounted above ninety for nine consecutive September days. Temperatures as high as 93 and 94 also were reached during September in 1900, 1908 and 1912.

MARION, Ill., Sept. 8.—The jury investigating the Herrin massacre today voted to recess until Monday, September 18, to give deputy sheriffs time to arrest persons under indictment. More indictments are expected late this afternoon.

MARION, ILL., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—With four additional men in jail here today, charged with murder, Sheriff Melvin Thaxton and his special deputies were out searching for the rest of the 38 indicted yesterday in the true bills returned in the grand jury's partial report on the Herrin mine war.

With Oleg Clark, of Greenville, the first man indicted and arrested, the four new prisoners are:

Levi Mann, miner, of Herrin; Charles Rogers, miner, of Herrin; Philip Fontanella, miner, of Marion, and James Brown, a negro deputy sheriff of Colp, a small mining settlement east of Herrin.

Less than 15 minutes after the indictments had been read in open court, Sheriff Thaxton was returning to the county jail with the first prisoner. The other three were brought in by the deputies late in the evening. Marion residents were unaware of the wholesale issuance of indictments as only a few were in court when the grand jury's report was read. St. Louis papers that reached the city this morning, brought the first general information of the indictments.

The first indictment made known yesterday, charged six men with the killing of Howard Hoffman, of Hunt.

ALL ASIA MINOR MAY BE EVACUATED; TWO GENERALS CAPTURED

LONDON, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Official despatches from Constantinople, indicate the Turkish nationalist forces have advanced to within about 25 miles of Smyrna and are advancing rapidly.

PARIS, Sept. 8.—(By the A.P.)—Rumors that King Constantine of Greece intends to abdicate are current in several European capitals. They are considered here to have been given some color by the sudden recall of the Greek heir apparent, Prince George, to Athens, from Bucharest.

King Constantine's abdication is regarded here as an increased possibility, particularly as it is considered the only method of getting former Premier Venizelos, Greece's war time leader, to return to Athens, form a coalition government, make an effort to restore order in Greek affairs and regain a part of Greece's lost prestige.

Greeks Making Last East Of Smyrna

SMYRNA, Sept. 8.—Greek forces today were holding the line east of Sallid, sixty miles east of Smyrna. It was stated in advices from the front, but there seemed little hope of stemming the tide of the general retreat of the Greek army under the Turkish nationalist thrust. Deserters are arriving here by the thousands.

The Greek northern army, other messages state, is retiring from Brusa toward Panderma and Mudania on the Sea of Marmora.

An Adana dispatch today carrying Turkish nationalist reports, denied Turkish cavalry was only 25 miles from Smyrna.

A telephone message from the Greek commander in the field, says that General Tricoupi, who had been appointed to the command, and General Digenis were captured by Turk.

$50,000 LOOT

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Adolph Kunster, said to be a New York jeweler, was assaulted by three men today in a restaurant on upper Sheridan Road, and robbed of jewelry valued at $50,000, according to reports to the police. The bandits escaped in an automobile. Kunster was taken to a hospital, where it was said he had been severely lacerated.

Few patrons were in the restaurant at the time and the robbers are believed to have previously learned Kunster's identity and followed him to the place. The bandit's automobile stopped in front of the place as Kunster entered, and the trio went inside after him. A fourth man remained in the car.

Without losing any time, the robbers, according to information given to the police, attacked Kunster, and quickly got his wallet containing the jewelry, which consisted chiefly of diamonds, and fled to their car and sped away.

Kunster is said to be in the diamond brokerage business with a brother in New York.

Youth Who Killed Roy Kinney Exonerated

Edward Lowe, 14 year old colored youth, was exonerated of a charge of murder for the killing of Roy Kinney, also colored, by the finding of Judge N. B. Gilliland, made Thursday afternoon at the conclusion of a hearing in Juvenile court.

"The prisoner is discharged," the court said, and then followed an affecting scene, the spectators in the courtroom cheering as the youth's mother clasped her freed son in her joyous arms and both wept for sheer joy.

The murder occurred in the North End last Sunday afternoon when the boy went to the defense of his mother, Mrs. Zella Woods, and shot Kinney in the neck as the latter was in the act of assaulting his parent.

The hearing consumed most of the afternoon and the defense relied on the plea that the youth had a right to defend his mother and that the firing of the fatal shot was wholly justified.

Attorney Theo. K. Funk represented the accused and Prosecutor Sheppard appeared for the state.

The principal witnesses called by the state were Chief Dist. Officers Schroeder and Amick and Jesse Marshall, the latter an eye-witness to the shooting, and when the state finished its evidence in chief, the youthful prisoner took the stand in his own behalf and reiterated the story he told at the time of his arrest. In part he said:

He told of his acquaintance with Kinney, and of how the latter had threatened to kill his mother. He related the times when the dead man had assaulted his mother, and how she had lived in constant fear of the slain negro.

Then he launched into his story of the fatal Sunday, which, as he told it, was substantially the same as that he told in The Morning Sun the day after the killing. He related how he and his mother had gone to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Fronie Hollingsworth Brown, to avoid meeting with Kinney; how Kinney had come to the house and threatened his mother; how she had given him (Edward Lowe) her gun and he had put it away; how, when Kinney gave chase to his mother up the alley, he had gone to the drawer, secured the weapon, and started out to protect his mother.

As he came to the vital part of his story, that dealing with the firing of the fatal shot, the audience leaned forward and listened intently to the words of the youthful defendant.

"I shouted at him not to hurt mama," he said, "and he turned toward me. Mama called to him not to hurt me, and he turned toward her. Then he turned back again and caught me and choked me. He tried to get the gun away from me and caught me by the arm. I shot. I don't know how many times. At first, I fired into the ground, but when that didn't scare him, and he struck at mama, I shot higher. I didn't aim to hit him any place. I just shot and he fell. Then I threw down the gun and mama took me into the house to wait for the officers."

The lad's mother, Mrs. Zella Hollingsworth Woods told her version of the shooting to the court, agreeing substantially with the story of her son. She also told of threats on the part of Kinney and of how, she claimed, he had shot at her twice or three times on last Friday night.

Following her testimony, "Link" Brown, husband of Mrs. Fronie Hollingsworth Brown, sister of Mrs. Woods, was placed on the stand by the defense. His testimony corroborated that of the other witnesses and Mr. Funk rested the case.

After discussion between the lawyers, it was agreed to submit the case without argument.

Judge Gilliland then rendered his verdict.

He said: "The court knows that a man is justified in going to the defense of his mother. It knows that Roy Kinney went to the Brown home with wrongful intentions. It knows that he had at various times assaulted Mrs. Woods."

"The boy is to be commended for going to the defense of his mother. I know he is sorry for the deed he has done. No one should take the law into his own hands, but here is a case where the defendant exercised extreme patience. He would have been justified in shooting sooner than he did."

"While I want to emphasize the fact that no person should take the law into his own hands, I feel that this is a case of justifiable homicide."

"Therefore, the prisoner is discharged."

Get More Eggs this Fall and Winter!

The one great mistake most poultry raisers make is in the idea that scratch feeds make eggs, and this accounts for their failure to get eggs in the winter and fall.

Scratch feeds do not make hens lay. Just so long as you make scratch feed the bulk of your hen's ration, you will fail to get eggs. Scratch feed is for the hen's bodily maintenance—to make her exercise, scratch—to satisfy her while on the roost, and not to make eggs. The feed that will make hens lay abundantly must be a soft feed, finely ground and correctly balanced—a feed composed of materials like hens pick up in the Spring, when their egg production is highest.

FUL-O-PEP DRY MASH The Great Oatmeal Poultry Feed

is that kind of a feed—compounded along nature's lines—made solely to make hens lay. It is a combination of proven egg making materials with several other valuable ingredients which come as near nature's egg-making food as it is possible for expert knowledge, science and experience to produce.

To get more eggs, Feed FUL-O-PEP DRY MASH—all your hens will eat. Keep it where they can get it all the time, and feed Ful-O-Pep Scratch Feed about an hour before they go to roost—then you'll get eggs and lots of them. We guarantee it.

It became known last night after a meeting of several members of the official Board of the First Christian Church, that the congregation intends to build a new church home.

E. G. Williams of the Board, stated last night that a Site Committee had been appointed and that it has already viewed several locations, and will make its report at the meeting of the Official Board the first Monday in October.

He added that the actual work on the church will not start for some time, but that the building is assured as soon as the project is sufficiently financed to warrant plans being drawn.

The members of the Board took action favoring a new house of worship, feeling that the large and growing congregation is in need of a larger and more imposing structure, while the Bible School, according to plans, will have a modern bible school plant.

Disciples Of Christ Close Fine Meeting

With a good attendance and fine talks being enjoyed the third annual meeting of the Disciples of Christ of Scioto county closed at the First Christian church last night. After a short song service with County Chairman Rev. Charles Reinhard of Sciotoville in charge, the floor was given to Mrs. A. R. Strang of Cleveland who was the first speaker of the evening.

She chose as her subject "Passing Our Blessings On To South America," giving in detail the missionary needs of the continent and telling what has already been done for the people in its countries.

Rev. N. D. Murch of Cleveland spoke on the work of the Ohio Christian Missionary Society. He said, Alexander Campbell predicted that the organization of this country would have a great influence on missions in this country. The organization has been used as a model by other societies when they arranged their program and planned their enterprises. It takes organized work to accomplish things these days and it is a stronger organization that we are urging. He followed with a brief history of the organization of the O. C. M. S. and outlined the work it has done and is doing at the present time.

The following officers were chosen at the business session in the afternoon:

President—Rev. Charles Reinhard of Sciotoville

Vice President—Walter Bagby, Portsmouth.

Secretary-Treasurer—Mrs. Belle Lechner, Portsmouth.

The above officers together with the following will form the board of managers for the churches of Scioto County: Mrs. Lulu Jenkins, Sciotoville and E. G. Williams, F. W. Sheridan and Mrs. Mary Musser of Portsmouth.

Faces Charge Of Burning Own Home

OAK HILL, O., Sept. 8.—Confined in the county jail since May 20th, in default of payment of a thousand dollar fine imposed for manufacturing intoxicating liquor, Clint Walton, living three miles east of Wellston, now faces the more serious charge of burning his property with intent to defraud an insurance company.

Walton was arrested by Sheriff Davis on a liquor charge and lodged in the county jail.

Some two weeks prior to his arrest on the liquor charge, Walton's house was burned to the ground. It is said that the fire occurred during the night, while Walton and his family were away from home. Some suspicious were aroused as to the origin of the fire, and the State Fire Marshal was called upon to make an investigation.

The investigators found that Walton had materially increased the insurance on his property shortly before the fire occurred, and that immediately after the fire he had filed with the insurance company his proof of loss covering various articles of personal property.

During the investigation there were found buried in the ground, at some distance from the house, large and well constructed boxes, painted red, with rope handles, and one kept filled with personal belongings of Walton and his family, including clothing, pictures, papers and correspondence, and a valuable camera with its accessories.

Walton, it is said, denies any knowledge of the burying of his goods, and insists that they must have been stolen from the house, and buried by some one else prior to the fire.

Building Temporary Bridge

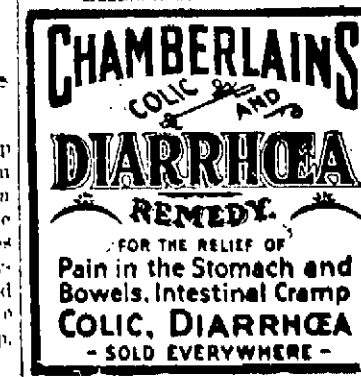

Pike County Commissioners are having a temporary bridge built over Beaver Creek, just south of Piketon to replace the old covered bridge, damaged last week when two large trucks owned by the Standard Oil Company went through the bridge floor.

The second truck was removed Wednesday and is now in this city.

The larger of the two trucks was only slightly damaged and is already back in the trade. The smaller truck was the worst damaged, but will soon be repaired.

The two big trucks contained more than 1300 gallons of gasoline and of this amount 515 gallons leaked out into Beaver creek, a little over 400 gallons being left in the trucks. The tilted positions of the trucks hanging from the bridge to the creek bed caused the gasoline to run out. Contractor Brown of the firm of Anderson and Brown of Chillicothe, supervised the work of getting the trucks out of the creek.

It is thought that a new concrete bridge will be built, about 200 feet above where the old covered bridge stood.

All Work On Ohio Highways Will Stop Because Of The Rail Strike

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—All state road building, except work of finishing base courses, has come to an end because of inability to secure transportation of materials, due to government priority orders on coal and foodstuffs, State Highway Commissioner Herrick announced today.

Plans of the state highway department had called for the same number of miles of road constructed this year as the record set in 1921, when 1,000 miles were finished.

By September 1, last, Herrick said, 807 miles of road had been finished since June 1, falling short by only three miles of the total planned to be completed at that time.

Efforts now, he said, will be concentrated on finishing base courses in order to avoid as many detours this winter as possible.

As an example of the difficulties that have arisen, Herrick pointed out that 100 tank cars of bituminous material were across the Ohio river in Kentucky, and could not be shipped the short distance into Ohio, and thence to a certain concern's refinery. As a result the company had to make shipments from Chicago and St. Louis.

One contractor, Herrick said, reported that 21 cars containing materials, were on a siding fifteen miles away from his contract, but the railroad company found it impossible to move the cars to his work.

Herrick declared during the winter there would be a paved route over the C. C. C. highway from Cincinnati to Columbus and on to Cleveland. He said the 13 mile stretch from Democracy, (north of Mt. Vernon), has been completed.

The greater portion of the C. C. C. highway between Columbus and Mt. Vernon, will be paved before cold weather and the remainder of the stretch will have a suitable base course for traffic.

Separate Peace

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad station by Deputy United States marshals. After being served with the notice and a federal subpoena to appear before Judge Wilkerson next Monday when the government will seek to obtain a permanent injunction against any interference with railroad operation, the union leaders hurried away together. Mr. Jewell was expected to be at his office this afternoon.

Settlement Rumors Persist

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Persistent rumors of an impending peace or partial settlement of the railway strike continued here today without any tangible foundation in the way of definite statements by rail heads or union officials to substantiate the reports.

Expressions of hope for separate agreements with individual roads were the most positive statements any union leaders had made as the time approached for Monday's meeting of the shop crafts policy committee. Arrangements for this meeting called for a preliminary conference here today between Bert M. Jewell, head of the striking shopmen, and his executive council.

David Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and leader of the group of rail executives who gave favorable consideration to the plan for separate agreements, was still in Chicago today.

Officials of the New York Central Lines and the Chicago and North-western with whom Mr. Willard was reported to have conferred, denied that any settlement proposals had been tentatively accepted.

While waiting here for the return from New York, of Samuel M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western and chairman of the Western public relations, Mr. Willard also conferred with Hale Holden, president of the Burlington; James E. Gorman, president of the Rock Island lines; H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific.

Supporting the denials of railway presidents that there had been any new peace negotiations, was a statement by J. P. Noonan, chief of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who said at Washington that there were no settlement discussions proceeding with any railroads at this time, although there might be some in the future.

The purpose of the shop crafts policy committee meeting was to consider the strike policy and the Daugherty injunction he said.

The policy meeting is called for the same time that Judge Wilkerson is due to hear Attorney General Daugherty's application to make the government's strike injunction permanent.

Several roads reported their shops to be operating on an almost normal basis, declaring the shop men had lost their strike.

Meanwhile strike conditions throughout the country remained generally quiet.

Mr. Jewell and all officials of the six shop crafts on strike were reported to have voluntarily cut their own union salaries in half until termination of the strike.

Await Legal Outcome
WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Labor leaders here were awaiting today the outcome of their first legal move against the injunction obtained by the government in Chicago last Friday against the striking railway shop crafts—the suit of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, one of the striking organizations, to prevent the federal authorities from enforcing locally the provisions of the Chicago order.

The suit, filed in the District of Columbia supreme court yesterday and set for hearing tomorrow, assailed the legality of the Chicago injunction, questioned the jurisdiction of the Chicago court and denied that the plaintiffs had been guilty of any illegal act "before or since" July 1.

Department of justice officials, while declining to comment for publication on the union suit, expressed the opinion unofficially that if the district supreme court should grant the temporary restraining order it would lead to the wide power of the injunction granted by that court under the Sherman and Clayton act being upset by courts of other jurisdictions.

Meanwhile, it appeared certain today that administration conferences had led to the conclusion that provisions of the Chicago injunction which have been interpreted as tending to interfere with "free speech" might be modified in the permanent injunction, when and if granted, without sacrificing the broad purposes of the suit.

Just how far government representatives might go into the question of modification was not indicated, but those in close touch with administration, believed Attorney General Daugherty and his advisers, had concluded that the temporary order went unnecessarily far in its restrictions.

Urge Separate Agreement
COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 8.—Telegrams sent to Washington yesterday addressed to Senators Tomcove and Willis say that the shop employees of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad at Lima, Newark and other Ohio points would like to return to work and the Ohio Senators are asked to make a separate agreement with its men, according to a special dispatch to the Ohio State Journal tonight.

The Newark Rotary Club wired to the Ohio Senators as follows: "Baltimore and Ohio railroad officials believe they could make a separate settlement with their striking shop crafts employees if permitted to do so by officers of the national organization. The situation which has existed for two months naturally has had a bad effect. We respectfully urge that you use your best offices with President Jewell and others to permit Baltimore and Ohio striking employees to make a direct settlement with the company."

Shopmen Make Charges

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 8.—One hundred and fifty affidavits setting forth alleged violations of the Federal injunction against striking railroad shopmen were sworn to before R. T. Dickerson, assistant U. S. Attorney, by a score of Baltimore and Ohio employees here yesterday.

These sworn statements embodying charges, ranging from assault and battery to robbery and shooting with intent to kill, it was understood, are to be submitted in the court hearings both at Chicago and in this city.

Subpoenas Are Served

Chief Deputy U. S. Marshal Valentine Stolz received from Chicago, subpoenas to be served on officials of railroad shopmen's unions in the Southern District of Ohio named as defendants in the injunction proceedings filed at Chicago by Attorney General Daugherty.

The defendants in this district are: M. P. McGee, president, and H. J. Albert, secretary of the B. and O. Local No. 30, at Cincinnati; H. T. Hamilton, president, and J. W. McDonald, secretary of Hocking Valley, Local No. 51, at Columbus, and W. E. Yeager, president, and Virgil Edwards, secretary, of Kanawha-Michigan Local No. 111, at Middleport, O. The six officials are ordered to appear before the court in Chicago on September 11.

Gompers' Caustic Comment
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 8.—Asserting the President "instead of using the big stick on the rail executives, through his Attorney General has swung it in the form of an injunction against the shop crafts," Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor to which issued a statement wherein he said:

"Oh, for one hour of normal thinking by our government officials!"

Nine men were named in connection with the hanging of Robert J. Anderson, of Sparta, Mich. This bill had two counts.

Twenty-seven were made co-defendants in the third bill, charging them with murder in connection with the death of John Shoemaker, of Charleston, Ill.; Charles Rogers, of Fontanetta, and James Brown, negro deputy sheriff, and Otis Clark are named in this bill.

Shoemaker was a son of Mayor Shoemaker, of Charleston, Ill., and the father of three small children. He was a brother-in-law of W. J. Lester, owner of the ill-fated strip mine, and was acting as assistant superintendent at the time of the massacre. Huert Walker, who was also named in the third bill, is alone charged in the fourth indictment with the killing of Shoemaker.

More indictments will be issued it was stated by Attorney General E. J. Brundage in charge of the grand jury investigation. These, it is understood, will be issued for larceny and perjury. Following the massacre at the strip mine, much of the equipment was stolen.

The four prisoners who were brought in last night, like Clark, after his arrest, remained silent, and declined to make any statement.

Unveil Monument To Memory Of Col. T. W. Higgins

WAVERLY, Sept. 5—The story of an attachment and life long friendship between a "Drummer Boy" and his Captain formed in Camp and on the battlefield, and comparable to that of any rendered famous in the annals of Scripture or History is forever perpetuated by the massive granite monument erected in the Waverly cemetery in the memory of the late Lieutenant Colonel Thomas W. Higgins of Chillicothe and Richard Enderlin of Chillicothe and unveiled with appropriate and impressive ceremonies in the presence of surviving veterans of the Civil War and a large assemblage of citizens on Monday morning September 4, 1922.

When the citizens of Waverly learned of Colonel Enderlin's purpose to thus honor the memory of his brave commander and their distinguished former fellow citizen they insisted that the occasion of its erection be publicly recognized with suitable ceremonies that the spirit of patriotism and friendship prompting the action should be made known to the community. Securing the consent of the donor, a committee of local citizens of which William F. Taylor, cashier of the First National Bank, was made chairman was formed and in consultation with Colonel Enderlin perfected all arrangements. Merritt Post of the American Legion through a committee composed of Howard Middleton, Sergeant John Harkins and David A. Breng entered heartily into the arrangements, and contributed materially to the success of the occasion.

With this splendid co-operation a scene was enacted and ceremony carried out in the Waverly cemetery which stirred the hearts and emotions of the vast company called forth by this unusual event and circumstances.

The stirring martial music of a Chillicothe drum corps composed of Albert Watson, Serick Gray and J. M. Scott assembled the populace at Central Park from whence they repaired to the cemetery and scene of the morning program and exercises.

The Higgins Family Plot on the center of which stood the monument covered with a great American flag was enclosed by ropes, on the drive way paralleling the plot a large Barnhart Truck decorated with flags and bunting and seated with chairs formed an improvised speakers stand while chairs placed in the welcome shade of protecting trees provided seats of vantage for veterans and the wives and widows of veterans and other distinguished guests.

Hon. S. D. McLaughlin of Waverly acted as Master of Ceremonies and presented those who had a part in the program. After a few introductory remarks Mr. McLaughlin announced that the monument would be unveiled by Thomas William Oyer, a grandson and namesake of Colonel Higgins. As the folds of the flag were removed there shone resplendent in the bright morning sunlight a beautiful four piece, three and one half ton highly polished Wisconsin Red Ruby Granite Monument furnished and placed by the Barnhart Granite Company of Chillicothe.

The top of the stone bears the following inscription:

"1825 1906"

"THOMAS W. HIGGINS"

Below is the following inscription: "Thomas W. Higgins, in 1861 recruited Co. B, 73 O. V. I. and was appointed its first captain. He fought in many battles and was mustered out of service in 1865 as a Lieutenant-Colonel.

After this on the third stone is a tribute to his wife, who is buried beside her husband.

"1837 1908"

Isabel Higgins, His wife, a most useful and exceptional woman."

On the bottom stone is inscribed: "Erected 1922 by his drummer boy, Richard Enderlin of Chillicothe, Ohio."

A very pretty incident immediately followed the unveiling, Richard Vernon Hopkins, a grandson of Colonel Enderlin in a beautifully expressed sentiment presented to Thomas William Oyer the fine gold headed cane which had been presented to Colonel Higgins by the citizens of Waverly.

Colonel Higgins had requested that at his death it be presented to his dear friend and comrade, Colonel Enderlin, who had presented it to his own grandson and who was now returning it to the Higgins line.

The reading of the roster of Co. B of the 73 Regiment, the Company of Colonel Higgins and of Colonel Enderlin by Mr. J. Henry Greenbaum of Chillicothe recalled many names familiar to the auditors but who have now passed on.

Mayor Addison P. Minshall of Chillicothe was appropriately presented as the orator of the occasion. Mayor Minshall is a son of the late Captain Thaddeus A. Minshall of Company H, of the 33 Reg. O. V. I. and who came out as the Captain in charge of the Regiment when it was mustered out of the service at the close of the war. Seated upon the platform was the venerable Captain M. C. Peters of Scioto township this county, who is the last surviving commissioned officer of the 33rd, being the Captain of Co. E. Singularly enough in attendance were the last three surviving commissioned officers of the 33rd in this county in the persons of Major J. C. Foster of Hilly and Captain B. H. McKee and Captain John B. Smith of Chillicothe.

Most appropriately Mayor Minshall related the stirring story of the heroic exploit which won for Colonel Enderlin the Congressional Medal of honor for bravery and with which Colonel Higgins was also so directly concerned. It occurred on July 2, 1863, the evening of the second day of the battle of Gettysburg. Colonel Higgins with three companies of his regiment had been ordered to take a position occupied by a Confederate battery. The forces engaged were about of equal strength and remained deadlocked for a considerable period. Receding reinforcements first the Confederates drove the attacking force back, unable to take their dead and wounded back with them leaving them upon the field. That night they could hear the cries of the wounded who lay between the two armies. Sergeant Enderlin recognizing the call and cries of Sergeant Nixon asked permission of Captain Higgins to effect his rescue. Captain Higgins realizing that it meant certain death refused to permit his young Sergeant to sacrifice his life. However, the cries of the wounded comrades continued so plaintively that Sergeant Enderlin again requested permission of his commanding officer to attempt his rescue and this time won his consent.

Crawling on his stomach through an mine which field he traversed 500 yards across no man's land and within the enemy's lines. A Confederate sentinel who saw him crawling back thinking that he was one of his own men asked him if he needed any help to which Enderlin rejoined that he could get back alone. Reaching the wounded comrades he warned him to remain silent and placing him upon his back with his arms around his neck began the dangerous and laborious journey back to the Union lines. When the distance had been nearly traversed a motion in the wheat betrayed his presence to Confederate sentry whose fire precipitated a rain of fire from more than 1500 guns from both sides but which miraculously failed to find their mark. The wounded comrade was safely delivered to the rear of the lines where he got surgical attendance and relief. Captain Higgins who had witnessed the exploit and rescue prepared and presented the proofs to the Congress of the United States who voted to Enderlin the Medal of Honor which he wore on this occasion and which Mayor Minshall exhibited to the assemblage. In the course of his eloquent and able address Mayor Minshall presented to the family of Colonel Higgins and to the community the monument erected to his memory. Colonel Enderlin was then presented and heartily cheered and applauded as he slowly arose to address the great audience. Exhibiting deep emotion he said: "We sometimes have emotions in our breasts which words cannot express and I hold that this is one of those times. The story of the War of the Rebellion can never be fully told, neither can the full story of the hardships endured by the soldiers of that war be realized."

Colonel Enderlin could not trust himself to speak of the close and tender relations between Colonel Higgins and himself and talked of the experiences of his comrades. Singularly enough an instance which he chose at random concerned an uncle of the deceased husband of a widow within his hearing. Concluding his remarks he expressed his gratitude for the interest which the citizens of Waverly and Pike county had evidenced in this occasion and for their splendid cooperation, stating that he felt more

BLOTCHES

BLACKHEADS are Embarrassing

Oh! how can I get rid of them and enjoy the glory of a clear skin?

Don't despair! S. S. S. will lead you into a world you probably have never known before—a world of joy, where strong light and love are welcome, where spotted-faced embarrassment is no more!

S. S. S. makes the blood rich and pure, and when your blood is freed of impurities, your stubborn blotches, pimples, blackheads, acne, rash, tetter and skin eruptions are bound to disappear.

Miss Ethel Rose, 422 E. Water St., Painted Post, N. Y., writes: "I was troubled with pimples on my face, neck and chest. I was unable to take S. S. S. I found it as claimed, so it certainly purified my system and my complexion is now clear."

S. S. S. makes you feel like yourself again than repaid by this patriotic and loyal spirit. He enjoined them to ever retain this spirit of loyalty and to keep up the good work and to remember what has been done for you and yours. The whole world is looking to America for help and guidance, he declared. "God has placed us under a government, the government of Washington and Lincoln, that shall endure forever." As he concluded his earnest remarks he was again loudly cheered and applauded.

Mr. McLaughlin, then, upon behalf of the family and the community in choice words formally accepted the monument and praised the fine spirit and generosity of the donor. Following a stirring rendition by the drum corps the formal program was declared concluded, but the crowd was in no hurry to disperse but came forward to greet Colonel Enderlin and the old veterans from home and a distance.

An object of great interest was a large group picture of a reunion of the 73rd regiment held in Chillicothe, on August 22, 1880, in which appeared the features of many well known citizens who have passed on. Also photographs of the 73rd Regiment Monument erected at Gettysburg near the scene of Colonel Enderlin's exploit, excited interest.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Pierce and sons (Nell Higgins), and Mr. and Mrs. August Oyer and son and two daughters (Muriel Higgins) were representatives of the Higgins family present, while of Colonel Enderlin's immediate family were his sons, William Enderlin, Carl Enderlin R. P. Enderlin, son-in-law Frank Ferguson and grandson Richard Vernon Hopkins.

Following the ceremonies at the cemetery, Colonel Enderlin and his party visited the old home of Colonel Higgins now the Oyer home on Grandview. Later the Colonel was the guest and happy host of a large number of his old comrades and friends present for the ceremonies at dinner at the Emmitt House.

Mr. J. Henry Greenbaum a former Waverly resident had a large part in the success of the occasion relieving Colonel Enderlin of the worry of much of the detail and Mrs. Barnhart and son left nothing undone and gave much time and thought to the affair.

Chillicothe comrades and friends of Colonel Enderlin noticed among the attendants were, Capt. E. R. McKee, Sam McNally, C. A. Noth, John B. Smith, George Redman, Benj. Hunter, John J. Eberle and wife, J. C. Anderson, Herman Fiegelstahler, A. F. Greenbaum, Ed Greenbaum, William Greenbaum, E. L. Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—What will take that yellow, dingy look out of clothes. I wash them carefully, but in the summer they turn yellow and I want you to tell me what will make them white.

READER.
If you will boil them and then hang in the hot sun to bleach, I think they will be white. Put a little soap powder or cleansing soap in the water you boil them in and rinse in bluing water.

Dear Dolly—Do you know what kind of a shampoo I could use to make my hair fluffy? It is so straight and smooth that I can't fix it any way.

A READER.
It will take more than a shampoo to make straight hair fluffy. You might put it up on kids every night and then ruff it a little underneath and see how that works. However, if I were you I would let it alone, as I think straight hair just as pretty as flizzy locks.

Dear Dolly—How long should a woman or girl be permitted to work before? My daughter has to work 11 and 12 hours every day and she is so tired when she comes home she can't eat her meals. The man she works for won't keep her if she doesn't work as long as he wants her to. What would you do about it?

WORRIED MOTHER.
The law says a woman can only work 50 hours a week, or not more than ten hours in any one day. She could work eight hours a day for five days and 10 hours on Saturday, and that is the limit. If the man works your daughter 12 hours every day, get him to the prosecuting attorney.

Interested—I think they should, but of course if they don't get them back you can't very well do for them.

Dear Dolly—I am deeply in love with two boys, who want to talk with me. One is 21 and the other 17, the same age as myself. One is five feet three inches tall and the other one just comes to his shoulder. Please give me your advice. Would it be all right to talk to them?

KENTUCKY GIRL.
Sure, go ahead and talk their arms off if you have anything to say to them.

Dear Miss Wise—About this time last year you published a recipe for pickles made with the cold vinegar. I made some pickles off of it and they were delicious. I have misplaced the recipe and I wish you would publish it again. The one you had in last evening was not the one I wanted.

PICKLE EATER.
If any reader has this recipe, will they please phone it to 840.

Dear Dolly—I see so many letters in your column from unhappy wives that I cannot refrain from saying a few words on the subject. I have been married five years and my husband and I have never had a serious disagreement in all these years. I never try to boss him and he never tries to boss me. We just work together, but neither of us has lost our personality, or freedom. We plan what we are going to do together. I have suggestions and so has he. Then which ever plan seems to be best, we agree on that. As for money matters, we have never had any trouble along that line, either. My husband makes fairly good wages, and he trusts me with every cent of it. He married me to manage his home and all the household affairs, and he never interferes with my line of work. We have what might be called a community pocketbook. If he wants any money, he goes to the pocketbook and I do the same. Neither questions the other about what is done with the money. I pay the bills and put a certain amount away each week and we both have what is left to spend. I think the money question is the cause of many unhappy marriages, and also divorces. If young couples would start out right, and treat each other the same as they did before they were married, what a happy world this would be. I sincerely hope those who are married and those about to get married will try this plan and see how nicely it works out.

At a charming Five Hundred party given last evening by Mrs. Oscar F. Kah at her home, 638 Moulton Place, announcement was made of the coming marriage of Miss Mae Kah and Mr. J. I. Marsh.

The rooms of the Kah home were beautifully decorated with dahlias and other fall flowers and after the guests had found their places at the small tables for an evening of cards, a messenger boy came to the door with a telegram from the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kah, who are visiting in Ashton, Illinois, announcing the engagement of their daughter, Mae, to Mr. J. I. Marsh, the interesting event to take place early in October.

After an evening of cards, music and social chat, Mrs. Kah, assisted by her sisters, the Misses Esther, Helen and Bertha Cross, and Miss Garnet Schuler in serving a delectable ice course.

Those present included the Misses Alice Maister, Bertha Kellman, Mary Graf, Ethel Kirsch, Mary Herrmann, Charlotte and Annadora Marsh, Ruth Hopkins, Helen, Esther and Bertha Cross, Helen Hoss, Margaret Briggs, Garnet Schuler, Gladys Wittenberg, Effie Cranston, Stella Koger, Margaret Lauffer.

Mrs. Merle C. Winn, a returned Missionary from Japan, and the Woman's Missionary Society of the church will be guests for the afternoon. Mrs. H. A. Wright, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, will have charge of the devotionals. Members are asked to please bring their summer offering to this meeting.

So successful was the Rainbow Festival, given by the Epworth League of Manly church last night, that it will be repeated again this evening, starting at seven o'clock.

The festival derived its name from the gaily colored booths arranged in the basement of the church. Here the young women of the League sold refreshments. A fine program of vocal and instrumental selections and readings completed the evening's entertainment. This program will be changed this evening at the second presentation that those who attended last night may enjoy a different entertainment this evening.

MARRIAGE A LA MODE

In Sweden the bride's bouquet does not indicate the prosperity of the groom, as it does here, but rather her own popularity among her girlhood friends, for it is composed of a floral offering from each one.

The flowers are brought by the guests and are all bunched together, regardless of color or size, and the color scheme of the occasion.

Judge Blair's Sunday School Class of the Second Presbyterian church will meet next Monday evening, September 11th, in the Primary Room of the church. The assistant hostesses will be the Misses Kate Marsh, Lucy Barber, Mary Berndt, Mrs. Elizabeth Maxon, Mrs. Ben Rhodes, Mrs. H. B. Kahmar, Mrs. Dudley Molster, Mrs. A. T. Littlejohn, Mrs. John Campbell and Mrs. Roumer Riddle, who will be chairman of the meeting. This is the first full meeting of the class and all members are urged to be present. Rev. and Mrs. Merle C. Winn, returned missionaries from Japan, will be guests for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGuire and children have returned to their home in Jackson after an enjoyable week's visit with Mrs. McGuire's mother, Mrs. Matilda Sagowitz of Seventh street.

Miss Elizabeth Farmer of Highland avenue will leave Monday for Pueblo, Colorado, where she will take a position as General Secretary of the Y. W. C. A. in that city. Miss Farmer was for several years office and house secretary of the local Y. W. C. A. and during the past three years she was Industrial and Club Secretary of the Zanesville "Y." There will be five secretaries on the Pueblo staff, and in addition to their regular work they will have charge of a colored branch of the organization located in the same city. Miss Farmer will take up her new duties September 15th.

Adventures Of The Twins BY OLIVE ROBERTS DARTON

AWAY whizzed the enchanted automobile with Nancy and Nick inside. You'd never guess that it was different from any other nice, new, shiny car, but it was different—oh, awfully different. For it wasn't a really truly automobile at all. It was Flip-Doodle, the mischievous fairy, who had changed himself into an automobile in order to get rid of the Twins.

He didn't want 'em round. And he didn't want 'em nobbing, as he called it. He knew they were hunting for the Fairy Queen's wand he had stolen, and that's why he wanted to get them away as far as he could.

"My!" cried Nick, "this is fun!" "Oh, I could just ride on forever and forever and never stop once," declared Nancy happily.

Suddenly the automobile gave a jerk and a jump and turned over like a mad-turtle on its back.

Out flew Nancy and out flew Nick like beans from a bean-shooter.

Flip! Flip! They landed right together in a great puddle of squishy mud and sank down so far there was nothing to be seen of them but their heads.

"Help!" they cried, as soon as they found their voices. "Help! Help!" But what do you think, my dears! The automobile turned back on its wheels and rolled calmly away as though nothing had happened, never stopping even to blow its horn in sympathy.

But then that's not surprising considering that it had done it all on purpose.

No sooner had it turned the corner than the automobile turned into Flip-Doodle, the mischievous fairy, again.

"I hope no one helps those Twins this time!" he declared.

Baked Pears With Rice
By Bertha Shapleigh
Of Columbia University

12 pears	1 egg
1 inch piece of cinnamon	2 tablespoons sugar
2 cups milk	1-2 teaspoon salt
1-2 cup rice	2 cups sugar
	1 cup water

PARE, cut in halves, and remove the seeds from the pears. Make a sirup by cooking sugar, water and cinnamon together for five minutes. In this sirup cook the pears, a few at a time, until they are soft but not mushy. Cook rice in milk for one hour—add sugar, salt and egg and cook five minutes. Turn into a mold and chill. Turn onto a serving dish, surround with pears and sirup.

Hard winter pears, or the early fall pears, or seckel pears, are all good cooked in this way.

Sometimes a little preserved ginger instead of the cinnamon is used.

JACK LAYED DOWN FULL LENGTH UPON THE GROUND AND PEERED OVER THE CLIFF. ALL WAS RUSTLE AND EXCITEMENT BELOW THEN HE HASTILY DREW BACK HIS HEAD AS SOMEONE WAS CLIMBING UP THE HILL.

THE BOY QUICKLY HID BEHIND A TREE. HE HEARD THE MAN CLIMB OVER THE CLIFF, AND THEN WALK BACK AND FORTH ALONG THE EDGE. JACK LOOKED OUT. IT WAS THE BANDIT CHIEF, PEDRO LOPEZ. CONTINUED IN NEXT CHAPTER.

Exchangities Going To National Convention

Plans for having the local Exchange club and Portsmouth well represented and advertised at the National convention of Exchange clubs in Louisville the latter part of September were discussed at the meeting of the Portsmouth club last evening. The delegates Dr. F. A. Coburn, H. Res Selby, Orin B. Oakes, W. H. Harsha and Forest L. Williams were instructed to see that this city was "put on the map." The delegates plan to make the trip in an automobile and it is probable that another machine full of Exchangities will also attend from this city.

President Russell Anderson announced that the Huntington club had about completed plans for receiving its charter emblem and that a big delegation was expected.

An invitation will be sent by the local club to all Exchange clubs within a hundred mile radius to visit Portsmouth during the coming weekend. It is hoped to have a good representation here one day of the weekend.

The outing at Taylorton Woods will be held next Thursday evening, it having been postponed from last evening.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Jacob Linck purchased Charles Taubley's saloon on Chillicothe street and the new owner took charge immediately.

A colored man named Charles King employed as a deck hand on the Steamer Chevalier, was drowned when he fell off the boat into the Ohio river near this city.

Ralph Johnson, manager of the Grand Opera House, and Liveryman Dick Lorey arranged to establish a new hack and transfer line.

The school board elected principals for the various schools as follows: Union Street—Mrs. P. A. McKenna; Sixth Street—Miss C. M. Lewis; Fourth Street—Kate Vigus; Offshore Street—C. A. Amberg; Second Street—Carrie Zottmann; Davis building—Emma Westwood; Eleventh Street—Ralph Hurd.

Portsmouth was honored by a visit from the brave naval cadet, Gould Murfin, of Wellston, who was the first to discover the attempted escape of Cervera from Santiago Harbor. He was on a leave of absence and stopped over here for a brief visit with relatives.

John Kuowles left for Belvidere, a suburb of Elgin, Ill., to accept a position.

Speeding Up Work

On Universal Garage

In order to hurry up the pouring of concrete on the second floor of the new Universal garage on Gallia street east of Sinton, Contractor H. H. Kaps will put a night force of men to work, starting probably tonight. Lights were put up this morning so that a double turn could be carried on.

Should enough men be secured the work will be carried on all night. Last week Mr. Kaps was swamped with men wanting to work but this week when he needs them and can give them work not one is putting in his appearance.

Daily Family Holds Reunion

The third annual reunion of the Daily family was held Sunday, Sept. 3rd, at the Picketon fair grounds. The heavy rains which fell on Saturday night and again on Sunday morning did not deter the faithful members of the family from making their yearly pilgrimage to the shrine, which seems to be growing more dear to the family every passing year. One reason why the rain was of such little consequence, the large art hall which was at the command of the family, was utilized and the fair grounds being owned by some local members of the family, everybody was as comfortable as could be.

Soon after the arrival of the people who came from many points, the weather changed and presented a most beautiful autumn day. A happy social hour or two was spent during which old acquaintances were renewed and new ones formed. The ladies busied themselves preparing the feast board, which seemed almost to fill the art hall, no detectable daily or substantial food having been overlooked in the preparation. After a short season of beautiful vocal music all parties present seated themselves around the tables, after which grace was invoked by the Rev. P. W. Drumm, pastor of the Picketon M. E. church.

The real get together spirit and the heart to heart feeling of each and every member of the gathering was here made manifest and the ensuing half hour of enjoyment and fellowship ship was one long to be remembered.

After the tables were cleared, the band favored the members with several beautiful selections, the first being "Kilnary," appropriate and pleasing as the Daily family in their historical reading traced their ancestors to the nobility of Ireland. In sharp contrast the band next played in a most impressive manner, "Yield Not to Temptation." "Auld Lang Syne," and other beautiful selections. The band which was composed of twelve members contributed in a large measure to the day's pleasure and was most gratefully appreciated. Their services were secured by the efforts of President Floyd Daily and they made the trip by auto from their home town of Milford, Ohio.

Following the playing of "America" by the band the program of the afternoon began, conducted by the president of the reunion, Floyd Daily of London, Ohio. First was the reading of the minutes of last reunion held last year Sept. 4th, at the Picketon Fair grounds. The minutes were read by Secretary L. A. Bowden, who resides at Columbus, Ohio. Of notice in the minutes were the mention of the two oldest members who attended last year, Aunt Sofia Daily and her son, also her 95th year and who has since passed away. Also Captain M. C. Peters, 93 years of age, who is at present living near Wakefield, Ohio. President Floyd Daily then gave a most touching address of welcome, in which he expressed his good will to all members and his pride in being one of them. Rev. P. W. Drumm responded to an invitation to deliver a short address, in which he commended the name "Daily," and gave as its figurative meaning, "keep going." He also said that he took pride in his own name as some "Drummers" have two heads, that there might be greater capacity for knowledge. Rev. Drumm also mentioned the fact that in the great number of Dailys that were present at last year's reunion, only two deaths had occurred, the deceased members being Aunt Sofia Daily of Beaver and Mrs. Floyd French of Idaho. This address was followed by a selection by the band, "The Church in the Wildwood."

The business of the reunion was now taken up by President Floyd Daily, the first being to elect officers for the coming year. The members were unanimous in their selection of the same president, Floyd Daily Secretary L. A. Bowden. It was thought best by all to create another office, that of vice president, the motion was put before the house and C. S. Daily of Picketon was honored by that office. Miss Nellie Daily of Sargents was elected as treasurer. The band then played a musical service during which time a collection amounting to more than $40 was taken. The question was then taken up, regarding some means of amusing and entertaining the children during the afternoon session, and a suggestion made that a children's program be prepared for next year's meeting, resulted in a committee of three being appointed by the chair for the arrangement and management of said program. The members of the committee appointed were Misses Nellie Daily, Nellie Welby of Sargents and Miss Emma Fishburn of Picketon. Follows music, "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic," a short recital period followed and about half an hour later the meeting adjourned to the strains of "Home Sweet Home," to meet in reunion next year, two weeks earlier at the same place, which will be henceforth the permanent home of the annual Daily reunion.

The following people were present at this reunion: Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bowden and children, Hettie, George, Earl, Anne, and Clarence of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Daily of Washington C. H., Mayne Daily of Circleville, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer of Washington C. H., Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hatfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fishburn and daughters, Emma and Nellie and John T. JUST DRAGGED SO WEAKENED

Florida Lady Was In a Miserable Condition, But Says She Found Cardui Helpful and Got Well

Blountstown, Fla.—In explaining how she found Cardui so helpful during change of life, Mrs. Ella M. Bailey, of this place, said: "I became so weakened it was an effort for me to get around. I knew what was the matter, but I felt like I couldn't give up. "I just dragged, and I certainly was nervous. I was so restless I could not sit down long—yet so weak I couldn't get about. It is a most miserable and such a helpless feeling. "I would get depressed and out of heart. "I began to feel, after awhile, there was no use to try to get well. This is all wrong, for it makes a person worse. "I had heard of Cardui, and thought it might strengthen me. A neighbor had used it with good results. "I took one bottle (of Cardui) then I saw I wasn't so nervous, so kept it up. "Gradually the nervousness left me. I began to eat and sleep better. Was soon well, and all right. "Cardui did wonders for me, and certainly do recommend it." Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others. "Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Good druggists, everywhere, sell Cardui, the woman's tonic. Try it. —Advertisement N-523

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Continued improvement in industrial and rail stock situations was reflected in the strong tone of prices at the opening of today's stock market. New high records for the year were established in the first few minutes of trading by American Woolen, Pullman, Norfolk and Western, Dupont, Union Bag and Paper, the gains ranging from 1 to 3 points. Equipment stocks were in fairly good demand, advances of approximately a point being recorded by Baldwin and Lima Locomotive. Under the stimulus of resumed dividend payments, Standard Oil was pushed up more than a point and a half. Mexican oils recovered from their recent heaviness. Mexican Petroleum mounted a point in the first few sales advances in railroad shares were largely fractional, the leaders being Atlantic Coast Line, Rock Island and New York Central. Substantial improvements were noted in international paper. Houston oil, General Asphalt, American Metals and Consolidated Gas.

Stocks were bid up in spirited fashion during the morning, the rise extending over a broad list which presaged total sales of well over a million shares. Relatively easy money rates and indications of improved business conditions as reflected in the smallest number of weekly commercial failures to date also contributed to the more cheerful sentiment. Oils, equipment and motor accessories were particularly prominent gains of 2 to nearly 4 points being registered by Standard Oil of New Jersey, Pullman, Baldwin, Railway Steel, Fisher Body, International Harvester, Dupont, United Drug, Central Leather preferred, and Lorillard Tobacco. Mexican Petroleum's gain of more than 3½ points accompanied reports that the company was constructing two plants in Mexico for extracting gasoline from natural gas. Call money opened and renewed at four per cent.

Chicago Grain And Provision

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—General commission house buying based on high quotations at Liverpool led to a new upturn here in the price of wheat today during the early dealings. It was said large orders to purchase Canadian wheat were in the market. Gossip was current that France would require 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 tons of wheat before the harvest of 1922-23 was available. The opening which ranged from ½ to ¾ higher with Dec. 1.02½ to 1.03 and May 1.08 to 1.08½, was followed by a slight reaction. Profit taking on the part of holders checked advances in the values of corn and oats. After opening ½ off to ¾ higher, Dec. 58, the corn market held near to the initial range.

The close was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to ¾ higher with Dec. 1.02½ to 1.02½ and May 1.07½ to 1.07½.
Oats started unchanged to ½ higher Dec. 35 to 35½ and later showed but little change.
Provisions were without notable change, dealers apparently awaiting developments in the corn and hogs markets.

CHILD BITTEN BY MAD DOG

A one year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Salyers of Firebrick, Ky., is to start receiving a serious treatment this evening for the prevention of the development of hydrophobia.

The little child was playing with a pet dog of the household several days ago when the dog bit the child on the foot. Dr. A. P. Hunt of Fulton was called and he ordered the dog killed and sent its head to Louisville where state health authorities examined the head and found that it was suffering with rabies. Dr. Hunt on receiving word from Louisville yesterday ordered serum from Columbus and it arrived today. The child appears to be in the best of health and has not shown any signs of developing hydrophobia.

Gun Victim In Dying Condition

Fires At Deputy Sheriff

GARRISON, Ky., Sept. 8.—Thursday about 9 p. m. some unknown person fired a shot at L. D. McCalley, Deputy Sheriff, who is doing guard duty for the C. & O. at the pump house here. Mr. McCalley and Wm. Skidmore were sitting on a bench just outside the pump house and Henry Waring was sitting on a wheelbarrow near by. A train was passing and the shot was fired from beyond the far side of the train. They saw the flash of the gun but were unable to tell who used it, because the train obstructed their view. The bullet lodged in the wall of the pump house near McCalley's head.

It is supposed the gunman was some one who "had it in" for McCalley because of his work in pursuing violators of the Prohibition laws. Mr. McCalley got in touch with Sheriff Lykins and tried to get bloodhounds in order to trace the gunman but found it impossible to get them.

Congress, Heads Of Union Miners, Ohio Governor Discussing Coal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Completion of congressional action on the emergency coal legislation program neared today as the senate passed the fact-finding coal commission bill. It acted on the anti-protestering and coal distributing measure late yesterday. Both bills were sent to conference for adjustment of differences with similar measures passed by the house.

The senate decided today to retain provisions in the fact-finding coal commission bill directing the proposed agency to make a study of the "advisability or wisdom" of nationalization of the coal industry. The provisions had provoked heated debate but an amendment by Senator Dial, Democrat, South Carolina, which would have struck them out, was lost 80 to 10.

An attempt by Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, to eliminate the provisions instructing the commission to study the necessity of government control of the industry also was defeated. No record vote was had on that amendment.

Hard Coal Miners Meet

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Ratification of the peace agreement reached with the operators last Saturday by the anthracite mine workers scale committee which will end the long suspension, was definitely before the delegates to the tri-district convention of the miners today.

Thomas Kennedy, president of District Number 7, and chairman of the scale committee, finished the reading of his report of the negotiations which he laid before the delegates in chronological order and a motion was made by a delegate that the report recommending the acceptance of the peace proposal be adopted.

J. L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, who presided, warned the delegates that the adoption of the motion carried with it the ratification of the peace pact.

A motion to lay the report on the table was ruled out by Mr. Lewis, who suggested that international Vice President Murray be granted time to analyze the work of the scale committee.

If ratification failed, Mr. Murray declared the existence of the union would be at stake. The peace settlement, he added, maintained the high standard of wages obtained in 1920, and he promised the miners there would be no backward step in future negotiations.

Ohio Governor Busy

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—The full force of public sentiment will be behind the general assembly when it convenes Monday to take up the question of a fair price for coal a statement from the office of Governor Davis declared today. A large number of expressions of opinion endorsing the governor's move in calling a special session of the legislature to enact anti-protestering legislation, have been received at the executive office it was said.

The communications are from "the mass of plain citizens, from business and professional men from various sections of the state and some of them admittedly not in political accord with the administration," the statement said.

Took Affidavits In Portsmouth

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 8.—Chief Deputy United States Marshal Valentine Stolz received a telegram from United States Attorney General Daugherty today authorizing the appointment of two special deputies for assignment to the railroad shops at Newark, Ohio, if they are required there. Mr. Stolz said that an effort would be made at once to determine whether these appointments are necessary.

United States District Attorney

Morrow returned today from Portsmouth, Ohio, where he made a survey of the situation at the Norfolk and Western shops. He took a number of affidavits of employees who charge they have been struck by the strikers. It is charged by railroad officials that federal strike orders are being violated at the Portsmouth shops. Captain Morrow said that the affidavits secured by him would be presented to Judge Beck when he returns from his vacation.

Golf Match On Saturday

Another lap in the Tri-State Golf Tournament will be played on the local links Saturday when the crack Ashland and Huntington golfers invade Portsmouth and clash with the star players of the local club. Later on the final lap of the tournament will be completed in Huntington.

Gun Case Continued

Testimony on the part of the state in the case of Thad Chaffin, charged with gun toting, was heard by Judge McCall in Municipal court Friday and then continued for one week when the defense will have its inning.

A charge against Chaffin grew out of a shooting affray which occurred at the platform dance, near Rushtown, last Monday night.

Thomas Cole, Frank Waller, Chas. Bauer and Carl Nichols, called to the stand by the state, all testified that they saw Chaffin fire four shots at a man who took to his heels after slipping up behind Chaffin and striking him in the back. Nichols said that Chaffin took the gun from the inside pocket of his coat which he carried on his arm.

Chaffin is represented by Attorney H. L. Small.

School Girl's Elopement Stopped By Balky Auto

GLASGOW, KY., Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Carolyn Shuster, 18, daughter of W. Morgan Shuster, president of the Century Publishing Company, New York, and William Morris, 20, son of a Glasgow merchant, were found today by searchers at Goodnight, a village eight miles north of here. The two left here Wednesday night on an elopement to Jeffersonton, Ind., but their plan was frustrated by an automobile accident.

Mrs. Shuster has offered a reward of $100 for her daughter's return if unmarried.

Mrs. Shuster was to have left yesterday for Orange, N. J., to place her two daughters in a boarding school and some credence is given to the belief Miss Shuster might have run away so that she would not have to resume her studies.

However, the elopement theory was strengthened by the two young men said to have left Wednesday night with the couple, who on their return early yesterday, refused to answer any questions. Mrs. Shuster has been spending the summer at Glasgow, her former home, for many years.

Police News

On motion of the prosecution two complaints against Mrs. Cora Dunlap Castle Hill, Sciotoville, charging disorderly conduct and slander, were dismissed by Judge McCall in Municipal court Friday.

The complaints were filed by Eddie Royster and both sides were in court ready for trial when peace was declared, Attorneys J. W. Moulton effecting the amicable settlement.

For intoxication Joe Clinger was fined the usual $11.20 in Municipal court Friday. Clinger was arrested at an early hour Friday morning by the police because he went on a rampage at his home 925 Fourteenth street and broke up the furniture and smeared apple butter all over the place.

The case of Sam Brown, 30 years old, charged with larceny in connection with the theft of suit cases containing clothing valued at $50 from W. B. Graham, was partially heard by Judge McCall in Municipal court Friday and then continued until Tuesday to give the police an opportunity to bring the prosecuting witness, Graham, into court.

The cases of Arthur Hicks, James Tolow, Evelyn Whitman and Mina Cassidy, charged with pocketpicking in connection with the loss of $333 which Graham claims was stolen from his pocket, were also continued until Tuesday for hearing.

Speeder Fined

P. A. Court of Huntington was the name given by an autoist arrested at New Boston Thursday evening by Traffic Officer Frank White who claimed Court was driving at a 47 mile clip through the village. Court was fined $10.80 by Mayor Newberry last night.

To Probe Cotton Marketing

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—A broad investigation by the senate agriculture committee into the methods and practices employed in the marketing of cotton was ordered by the senate today in the adoption of the resolution by Senator Smith, Democrat, South Carolina, which seeks to determine whether there is interference with the law supply and demand in the cotton market.

Cool Nerve

FORT MADISON, IOWA, Sept. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Ira Pavy was hanged today for the murder of Claude Letner, the first hanging in Iowa in 12 years, and the most remarkable display of fortitude known to Iowa prison officials.

Pavy sauntered to the gallows smoking a cigarette, and greeted those around him with the banter he has kept up since his imprisonment. He stood on the platform with a smile and as the hanging shroud was being fitted, he called "so long everybody. Warden tell my mother good-bye."

Pavy's mother and sister previously had raced 200 miles to the prison. They reached it in time to be with Pavy for two hours.

Haslip Seeks Reinstatement
Raymond Haslip, suspended fire chief of New Boston, seeks reinstatement through mandamus proceedings instituted in Common Pleas court Thursday against Mayor William E. Newberry and the village council.

In his petition filed through Attorney Harry Ball, he seeks a court order compelling Newberry to withdraw the charges against him and requiring the council to reinstate him to his position as fire chief.

In the petition, Haslip denies the charges of gross neglect of duty and malfeasance in office filed against him, and which led to his suspension on August 23, 1922.

He sets forth that he has been fire chief since July 5, 1921, and enters into a general denial of the charges filed against him, setting forth his reasons for denying them, and claims that he ought not be compelled to answer them, since none of them, he claims, constitute malfeasance in office or gross neglect of duty.

Mayor Newberry, in the charges filed against Haslip, charged him with having failed to look after certain repairs which should have been made on the fire truck. Haslip, in his petition, says that he was not notified of any trouble with the truck.

The Mayor also charged him with neglecting to flush the fire plugs of the village, and the chief says there were no rules made on flushing plugs.

He also states that he believes under the law, the Council must make the rules for the conduct of the fire department, and charges Council with failure to do so.

In his petition he claims the specifications set forth in the Mayor's charges do not sustain either charge against him those of malfeasance and gross neglect.

Hearing on the petition has been assigned for one o'clock Monday when the defendant will be given an opportunity to show cause why the relief prayed for should not be granted.

The fire chief's hearing is scheduled to come up before the village council Monday night.

Franke On Trial

The divorce suit of Edith Franke, 3154 Walnut street, against William Franke, 2558 Gallia street was heard by Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Friday and the trial consumed a greater part of the day.

The plaintiff told the court that at the time of their marriage in Waverly in March 1918, and ever since the defendant was and has been abnormal and incapacitated and unfit to marry, that he had two former wives who procured divorces from him by reason of his impotency, all of which was not known to her at the time of the marriage. She further stated that Franke had a mania for taking things not his own and she named over a list of things which she claimed he had stolen at places where he had been employed and elsewhere, besides, she declared that Franke had cursed and abused her, made false accusations against her as to chastity and assaulted her upon different occasions.

The plaintiff further asserted that the defendant had been guilty of misconduct before her daughters by a former marriage and claimed that he is an improper person and unfit for a woman to live with.

Revelations made by the plaintiff in respect to Franke's theft of property from the steel plant while employed there, caused Judge Blair to withdraw as counsel for the defendant and the hearing was finished with Attorney W. W. Weidner as his counsel.

Attorney B. F. Kimble appeared for the wife.

CINCINNATI CLIMBS INTO THIRD PLACE WHEN THEY BEAT CARDINALS, 10-6

Giants Win From Phils

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Four Philadelphia twirlers failed to check the New York Giants' batting onslaught in the first game of the series, and although Jack Scott also was hit freely, the champions had little trouble winning 13-6, and holding their advantage over the Pittsburgh Pirates, who blanked Chicago 6-0. Wilbur Cooper, star Pirate southpaw, turned in his twentieth victory of the season.

Cincinnati climbed to third place, beating the Cubs by pounding out a 10-6 victory over St. Louis behind Kixey's steady pitching.

The American league rivals St. Louis and New York were idle while the Chicago White Sox nosed out Cleveland 9-8 in ten innings and the Athletics took a double header from the Boston Red Sox 7-4 and 6-0.

Catcher Yarnan replacing Ray Schalk, who was injured in the tenth, pounded out a homer in his first time at bat to give the White Sox their verdict. Eddie Rummel, ace of the Sox's twirling staff, hung up his 23rd victory by beating Boston in the second game while Tim Lincecum cracked out his 34th homer in the same contest.

MCCOY TAKES WIFE No. 9

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—Norman Selby, known to the ring patrons as Kid McCoy, has taken the count of nine from cupid it became known today, having secured a marriage license to wed Mrs. Jacqueline Arthur McDowell, of Baltimore. The application recited that Selby had been married eight times previously. Mr. Selby said he expected this marriage to be a success.

Leonard Matched

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Benny Leonard, world lightweight champion, and Charlie White, of Chicago, have been matched for a 12 round contest in Bogies Thirty Acres, Jersey City, on the night of October 6. Promoter Tex Rickard announced today.

The pugilists will be required to make the lightweight limit—135 pounds, at two o'clock the afternoon of the contest.

Kidding Nick Altrock, coach of the Washington nine, is like monkeying with a buzz saw. There's always a sharp—

Russell Trims N. & W. In Benefit Game

More than two thousand fans turned out to witness the diamond struggle played at the Findlay street arena Thursday afternoon by the crack Russell nine and the Industrial League Stars for the benefit of the striking N. & W. shopmen.

The throng observed a stirring battle which the visitors won after nine fast rounds by the close score of 3 to 2.

Although outbatted by a margin of 11 to 7, the Kentuckians enjoyed one fast session, the third, when they staged a smart rally and put over a trio of tallies which could garner more than the locals could garner, although they threatened to break through the enemy defense on several occasions, but threw away their chances by poor work on the bases.

An instance of this came in the ninth when with two down and a runner on first, Bauer crashed a single, center and was tipped for the final out trying for second, although the runner ahead of him took two bases and was safe on a close play at third.

Both Baker and Houston pitched well, especially in the pinches, but the latter had a slight edge in the matter of hits allowed and strikeouts and really deserved a victory.

Fannin's homer in the seventh was a ferocious drive that almost hit the railroad tracks in center field. He had no difficulty in circling the bases before the ball was recovered and returned to the diamond.

The real highlight of the game, however, was Harry Dunham who made three bingles in four trips to the plate. One of these was a long triple to right field in the first frame.

J. Keyser didn't get in the fray until the eighth, but he gave the fans some real entertainment while he was there. To celebrate his entrance into the lineup he cracked out a single to right and in the Russell half of the second he smacked one out of the air after a long run into the field, and turned over, landing on his head, but he held to the pill for the third out.

Cooper scooped up everything that came anywhere near him and on two occasions went into second base territory for drives, accepting chances O. K. and throwing wide on another.

The Russell defense finished the afternoon without an error and displayed some quick work in executing two double plays.

The game was fast, and was run off without a kick against the work of Empire Buck Yeager who called 'em.

The crowd was of gratifying proportions and was added to by many men and women from Russell who made their presence known throughout the game when they started rooting for their athletes.

The runs were made in this manner:

F. Keyser, first man up for the locals in the initial inning, tapped an easy roller to short and beat it out by a hair. Thimmes struck out after Stillwell sacrificed Keyser to the Keystone station, and with two on the shelf, the Republican candidate for sheriff—Harry Dunham—piled one far over the right garden's dome, for three cushions. Keyser scored. Baker covered first and got Cooper on an easy roller across the diamond.

Russell made its runs in the third. Smith walked for a starter and stole second easily. He scored on Huter's single to center. Baker landed on one that bounced over Dunham's head and went for a single. Chinu sacrificed. Sutton was out on a long fly to Bauer, but Hill's double to center scored Huter and Baker, the Russell battery. Thimmes should have had the ball, but misjudged it in the sm and Vidd filed out to the middle pasture.

Fannin's four base clout in the seventh added another for the locals, and from then until the finish, Houston held the Russells safely, giving them no chance to score.

Portsmouth had a fine chance to tie it up in the final frame. After Cooper lofted to right for an out, Fannin singled to the same place, the fielder falling down in an attempt to get the sphere. Wells struck out, but Bauer who had been hitting right into their hands all afternoon, singled one to center. Fannin could have scored on the hit, but Bauer went out trying to stretch it to a two bagger.

The same teams will meet at Russell Monday, September 18 for the benefit of the Russell shopmen.

Henry Roth donated the ammunition for the battle, sending out a half dozen cork centers for the batsmen to aim at.

DUKE STILL PANNING FIGHT

(Huntington Herald Dispatch)

Despite the fact that Mike Kearney and "Nig" Blair got away with a huge bankroll, there is absolutely no truth in the report that both boys are managed by Jesse James.

One learns with astonishment that Kearney and Blair have started training again by blinking their eyes vigorously twenty times a day, getting in condition to see the next big purse.

The official straw vote demonstrated that Jack Sheppard will be the next attraction at Clyffside. Just who will share the spotlight with Jack has not yet been decided. Sheppard is a foxy bird and few have been able to toss any salt on his tail.

The Kearney-Blair controversy will probably result in a jazz orchestra being put in all gymnasiums.

ST. LOUIS ALREADY CLAIMING PENNANT

ST. LOUIS, MO., Sept. 8.—(By The Associated Press)—"The time to accept reservations for the world's series is about ripe." Thus Bob Quinn, business manager of the Browns, expressed his conviction today that the local American league team would win this year's pennant.

Local sport writers agree that the final series between the Browns and Yankees will be the deciding factor in this year's fight for the pennant.

THE STOCK MARKET VIEWPOINT

SOME people may rail against Wall Street and the uninformed may persist in the mistaken opinion that the stock market is always "rigged" for the purpose of fleecing the public, but intelligent men are convinced by experience that in the long run "the ticker tells the tale," as the saying goes.

To casual observers one of the surprising things during the past month or so has been the steadiness of stock and bond prices. While Washington has been at its wits' end to find a legislative remedy for an economic ill, and while at least one captain of industry, who has posed internationally as a "little fixer" of the universe made a dramatic gesture intended to impress state and national authorities, the financial barometer was not affected. The ticker ticked on, either recording new high prices for securities or reflecting confidence in existing values.

Among the anxious of the street is "Never sell stock on a strike." It is based upon the fact that, however bitter the contest may wage, settlement may be reached, over night or between breakfast and luncheon. Such settlement rests in the hands of two or more men sitting around a conference table. No matter what the original cause, or what points of difference may arise or be eliminated during the progress of a strike, agreement may be reached at any hour and work immediately resumed. And the interesting thing is the alacrity with which all parties to industrial disputes get back on the job and try to make up for lost time, once a scale is signed.

The stock market—which is in effect a meeting place for the mutual exchange of parchment representatives of property and credits—is adept in anticipating human reactions. Hence the ticker has remained cheerful despite the gloom that has recently enveloped some industrial centers at home and despite the recrudescence of political troubles abroad.

London-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

LONDON, September 8.—Thoughts while strolling around London: Cockspur street. The steamship district. And a lot of American painters. All of them just missed the boat. Been missing them for years. Scotch beater a penny a bunch. There's a hot sketch. High hat, red tie and plaid trousers. And, by Jingo, a lavender weskit.

Old Bond Street. Where all the tailors are. And Sackville street. More tailors. There's Claridge's. The doorman sitting a fur muff hat. Old women sitting along the news kiosk and catching their false joy. Each block has its street singer.

The newspaper banners herald Dr. Frank Crane's "Tonic Talks." But the best one I've seen reads: "City Girl Weds Villain." London Bridge at twilight. And every pedestrian smokes a pipe. The Thames would be called a creek back in my home town.

There's Fanny Ward, the actress. Little groups waiting for the pubs to open. What a fine name for a restaurant that is—The Cool House. The lamp lighters here wear Brigadier General uniforms. A prison van. With faces peering out the little trap doors.

Pleasantly all lighted up. And London goes to the play. English sheep dogs. I've seen two pug dogs here. But not a single Boston Bull. I heard that fellow say he'd like to be back in Portland, Oregon. That bird has got a long way to go. If they continue to take my money away from me like they do, I'm in for a long swim myself.

Charing Cross Road. Rows and rows of book stalls. And dried up little men who sit in the darkened corners. The Edith Cavill monument. Always fresh with flowers. The English dandy wears an orchid in his button-hole. Now to find my way home.

The automobile horns here are all alike. They sound like the toy celebration horns, and every morning along The Strand resembles the noise of a presidential election. In fact one American in my hotel stepped out to the carriage starter the other morning and inquired: "Who's elected?"

Today the weather in London is typical. It has rained four times and there have been two fogs. Between times the sun came out. At such times the Englishman invariably greets you with: "What lovely weather we are having." And it is difficult to refrain from asking him if he knows any more good ones.

The English newspaper "sob sister" differs from her American sister. She has a secretary who makes all her appointments with thee, she wishes to interview. The one I met carried a cane and a gilt-edged notebook and said she thought all Americans were ripping.

The clerks in the most exclusive shops along Regent Street are mostly old, white-haired and white-bearded. In a hat shop I visited I was waited upon by one who used an ear trumpet. But I never had a clerk in any shop display more courtesy or satisfaction in making a sale. When I left his place he gave me his card. His name is the most euphonious I've ever read. It was: Elderton Eastlake Etherington. With a name like that one could almost crash into New York's Four Hundred.

Most anything can happen in a minute. For instance, in a minute you can:
Be born.
Get married.
Get run over.
Pay a bill.
Contract typhoid.
Propose.
Be accepted.
Sit down on your silk hat.
Lose your money.
Miss your train.
Fall off the wharf.

Get your head punched.
Get bitten by a dog.
Get fired.
Sit on fly-paper.
Kick a stick of dynamite.
Die.

Labor Leaders Divided On Advisability Of Attempting Impeachment Of Daugherty

ATLANTIC CITY, N. The High Cost of Carelessness
He was in love with his wife, but careless in money matters. Started off for a long business trip, promising to send her a check, which he forgot to do. Her hotel bill came due and she telegraphed:
"Dead broke. Landlord insistent. Wire me money."
Her husband answered:
"Am short myself. Will send check in a few days. A thousand kisses."
Exasperated, his wife replied:
"Never mind money. Gave landlord the kisses. He was more than satisfied."

To the Poorhouse
They had lost their way in their new and expensive car.
"There's a sign, dear," she said to her husband, who got out of the car and flashed his light on the board.
"Are we on the right road?" she asked.
He read: "To the Poorhouse."
"Yes," he answered. "We're on the right road and we didn't know it."

Is This Possible?

(Huntington Herald Dispatch)—Two met on Eleventh street who never heard of Mike Kearney or "Nig" Blair, and thought that Jim Corbett was still heavyweight champion of the world. And yet, some people are kicking against putting a car line down Eleventh avenue.
